

Please do not weaken the New Jersey Do Not Call List. I still receive too many calls and do not need it opening my home to further interruptions. I have a phonebook. I know how to contact businesses when I need them.